SENATORSHIP seems to be the chief topic of interest just now in the political world, seats in the next cabinet even sinking into insignificance beside them.

The Illinois House of Representatives has not yet got itself settled down to steady work, nor will it do so until the session is adjourned, which will not be until next week. The House will adjourn this afternoon until Tuesday at 5 p. m.

The anti-Jewish excitement now prevailing in many portions of Germany, and the outrages springing therefrom, and no credit to the German government and people, and go far towards proving that they are behind the spirit of the age in their estimate of what constitutes modern freedom. No people can be said to be thoroughly imbued with modern ideas who are not willing to accord to all men their natural rights, regardless of what their religious notions may be. Persecution is not the nineteenth century way of converting men.

The Monetary Times tells how the forests disappear. To make shoe-pegs enough for American use consumes annually 100,000 cords of timber, and to make our lumber matches 300,000 cubic feet of the best pine are required every year. Lumber and boot-trees take 500-000 cords of birch, beech and maple, and the handles of tools 500,000 more.
The baking of our bricks consumes 2-000,000 cords of wood, or what would cover with forest about 50,000 acres of land. Telegraph poles already up represent 800,000 trees, and their annual repair consumes about 300,000 more.
The ties of the railroads consume annually thirty years' growth of 75,000 acres, and to fence all our railroads would cost $45,000,000, with a yearly expenditure of $15,000,000 for repairs.

To judge from the "scenes" at the anti-Semitic meeting in Berlin the other evening, the agitation against the Jews is likely to become more serious than has been generally believed hitherto. The meeting was attended by about 2,000 persons, and the spirit displayed both by the speakers and their audience was that of thoroughgoing persecution. The principal orator read extracts from the Talmud for the purpose of proving that Jews regard it as a religious duty to rob Christians, and he called "fratricide" by implying that they ought once more to be subjected to the disabilities which were removed by a less prudent generation. In the course of the proceedings Jews were from time to time discovered among the audience. Many of them were severely beaten, all were insulted and turned out. Several times a free fight took place, and on one occasion the chairman abandoned for some minutes the attempt to restore order.

One hundred and ten years ago (1771) the date read backward and forward the same. So does 1881. A like number of years will come and go before the figures will possess the same quality.— lawyers were still grubbing at the case

MR. PATTERSON MEANT WHAT HE SAID.
The following tribute to a well known and respected physician will be read with pleasure by all who are suffering from pulmonary complaints themselves, or have friends so afflicted:

I hereby certify that my brother, Mr. J. L. Patterson, has been cured of a severe case of consumption, and is now well and strong. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, J. L. Patterson, Dec. 10, 1904.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Nov. 18, 1904.
My children were all seriously troubled with croup, and I was unable to get them any relief. I was advised to try Cough Syrup, and I did so, and in a few days they were all cured. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, J. L. Patterson, Dec. 10, 1904.

We have frequently mentioned the great importance to the people of having the legislature pass a law requiring every man receiving or disbursing public money to make at least an annual public statement of where it comes from and where it goes to. The people of Illinois in the past have lost thousands of dollars by means of mismanagement attending the handling of money by public officials and will lose thousands more unless it is required of them to make public their receipts and expenditures.

Who knows how much money is collected every year by the justices of the peace in Livingston county as fines, which the law requires should go to the school fund? Who knows how much of the money actually assessed as fines and collected goes into the hands of the county superintendent? What tax payer knows how much the school fund of his township has received during the past year from this source? We venture to say that not one in five hundred knows anything at all about it.
Surely this is a matter that the taxpayers are deeply interested in, and yet the legislature refuses to enact any law whereby the people may know how much money is collected every year in fines and how much of it goes into the school fund where it belongs.

What tax payer knows how much the road commissioners of this county spend their money? How much they pay for this job or that job; how much each of them gets through the year for his services or how much is paid to particular friends for doing work? True, a brief written statement of town accounts is posted up near the polling place and a statement is made at the town meetings, but there are few taxpayers who go to the town meeting, or who can reflect on the figures there hastily read off, while if these statements were printed in a public newspaper all could read and reflect on the various items.

Surely it is time that the people insisted upon it that their members enact laws doing away with some of the antique methods of doing public business now in vogue. It seems ridiculous that Livingston county should pay its thirty supervisors $75 for posting three notices of each election held on trees and fence-boards, when one-third that sum would secure the publication of the notice in every newspaper in the county.
Let the tax-payers get a prod and stir up their members of the General Assembly and insist upon it that the people of the State have some intelligent means provided them of knowing what becomes of the public money.

MAKING HIGHWAYS OF ICE.

To one not familiar with the spectacle, it looks quite novel to see a long white road of ice winding its length through the woods, through slashings, over and around which is not a particle of snow to whiten the earth. Many such roads have been formed in the woods the past winter, and over them great loads have been hauled by single teams.
These roads are renewed daily, the sprinkling cart being put on at night after the day's hauling has been accomplished.

PRESIDENT GRAY, of France, has a salary of $240,000 per annum. His regular salary is $120,000, to which is added $60,000 for receptions and $60-000 for traveling expenses. As the President is not given to grand balls and prefer to remain at home, it is estimated, as he has no need to pay, that he is laying up a snug sum against the next revolution.

The annual report of Secretary Read, of the State Board of Health was read at Springfield yesterday. It shows that 602 certificates to practice were issued by the Board last year to physicians and 8 to midwives, the total number issued since the organization of the Board being 8,859, of which 608 were to midwives. When the Medical Practice Act went into effect, July 1, 1877, there were 7,400 practitioners in the State, of whom 3,900 were non-graduates. Dec 31 last there were 4,950 graduates and licensees in the State, and but 1,100 non-graduates, being 1,350 less practitioners and about 1,050 less unqualified practitioners in the State than when the law went into effect.

Ten rollicking, refraining, operatic extravaganza—"The Lone Fisherman," better known as "Evangelina"—was presented in Decatur for the third time by the Rice Party at the opera house last night, before a large and delighted audience, many of whom it was plainly apparent had never witnessed this performance before. The management asserted that the play had been rewritten and revised by McNally, but the sequel proves that "Mc" didn't waste much ink or paper or set up nights reaching his brain for new jokes or situations. There were several new features introduced, but they were principally new and striking uniforms, and rich costumes worn by Gabriel and Vanny. However, the play was given with splendid effect, and was entirely satisfactory for that kind of an entertainment. Harry Hunter in his original creation, "The Lone Fisherman" was the central figure, and was not in the least cast in the shade by the coy Catherine. The party will appear at Springfield to-night.
At the meeting of the State Board of Agriculture, held at Springfield on yesterday, President Scott made a number of appointments of superintendents of departments for the next two years.—The Journal states that the preliminary list adopted for the coming fair has been considerably enlarged and improved in many respects. The grand herd premiums of $1,000 for the beef and milk breeds will insure the largest show of cattle ever exhibited in the west. The sweepstakes premium for stallions of the several classes of horses has been increased to $100. Besides this, $500 have been added to the horse premiums, making the attractions to horsemen sufficient to draw the best class of stock from all parts of the union.
The congregation at the First M. E. Church last night was much larger than was anticipated on account of the weather and other attractions. The meeting was full of interest and profit. There will be preaching at 7 o'clock to night, but no services after to-night till Sabbath morning. The meeting this morning was well attended notwithstanding the extreme cold. All are invited to-night.
The advertised prices for the "Evangelina" entertainment were 50 cents for the gallery and 75 cents for the lower part of the house, and no extra charge for reserved seats. The statement made yesterday that the admission to the gallery would be 35 cents was incorrect, and wholly unauthorized by the management.
YESTERDAY Illinois Central railway stocks were quoted at $1.25; C. & A., $1.50; Wabash, preferred, 89c; common, 49c; P. & E., 20c; Western Union Telegraph, $1.12; Atlantic & Pacific, 48c; U. S. Express, 53c; American, 61c.
The next dramatic attraction booked for the opera house is Minnie Palmer's "Boarding School" Combination, January 27. This is one of the leading combinations traveling, and meets with great success in all the large cities.

The People vs. William C. Davis, indicted for willful and malicious perjury in making an alleged false affidavit before Judge Smith at the last May term of the Macon county circuit court, in support of the petition of Charles Patterson, who asked for a change of venue to another judicial circuit, on the ground that he believed the judges of this circuit were so prejudiced in mind against him that neither one of them could give him a fair and impartial hearing, is now on trial in the circuit court before his honor, Judge Zane, of Springfield. The case was called for trial on yesterday afternoon, but not until 11 o'clock this forenoon was the jury sworn by the clerk, because of the inability of the attorneys to agree as to the competency of the gentlemen called to serve as jurors. The opening statement for the People was made by State's Attorney Johns, and for the defendant by Judge Thornton, whose associate counsel are I. A. Buckingham, Esq., and Lee & Walker. Mr. Johns is assisted by Hugh Cress, Esq. Two witnesses for the prosecution, Judge O. L. Davis, of Danville, and Judge J. W. Wilkin, of Marshall, gave in their testimony this forenoon, each being examined by Mr. Johns, and cross-examined by Judge Thornton. Neither honorable gentleman could swear that he knew Charles Patterson by name, and both testified that they had no prejudice against him [previous to or since June 7th, 1880, when the petition for a change of venue was made. The progress of the trial was watched with close interest by an interested assembly of attorneys and citizens generally.

Another Wabash Smash at Niantic.
On Monday evening, it will be remembered a "rear end" freight train collision occurred on the main track of the Wabash, St. Louis & Pacific Railway, at Niantic, in this county, by which about a dozen box and coal cars were badly damaged and east and west bound trains were delayed from 2 to 6 hours by the obstruction. The track was also torn up, and since the collision a force of men have been at work getting the track in proper shape. Trains passing Niantic have had to use the side track, the switches at both ends being left open day and night.
ANOTHER TIP-OVER AND SMASH occurred at Niantic last night at nine o'clock, which rendered a locomotive unfit for service and threw the trucks of four coaches from the track, but fortunately doing no serious injury to anyone, except shaking the passengers up right lively. The train was the Chicago and Kansas City Through Express, which makes no stops between Decatur and Springfield. Our informants say the train was going westward at a speed of 35 to 40 miles per hour, and when the locomotive struck the open switch at the east end of the Niantic side track to coast by the break in the main track occasioned by the Monday night collision, the ponderous piece of steaming machinery didn't "hook on" to the short curve properly, and the locomotive was thrown from the track, with the result above indicated. Engineer Archy McKell and Fireman Frank H. Hall, both residents of Decatur, remained bravely at their posts and escaped without a scratch. The Express Messenger, Partington, was probably the worst hurt person on the train, but his injuries are not at all dangerous. The locomotive and coaches being off, the Wabash wreck men worked all night to clear the track, and not until 5:30 o'clock this morning, did No. 2, due here from the west at 10:40 last night, arrive at the Union depot. The track is now fixed up in shape, and trains are running on time both ways as usual.
It was a narrow escape from a fatal accident and we congratulate those on board, and the company as well, on the fortunate termination of the tip-over.
AND STILL ANOTHER
Early this morning Wabash switch engine No. 187 collided with a Midland locomotive on the grand crossing at the Union depot, resulting in serious damage to the latter engine. The locomotive was thrown from the track. Fortunately no one was injured.

THE GREGORY LECTURE.
"The World Our Schoolmaster."—A Brief Outline of the Movement.
The announcement that Doctor J. M. Gregory, late rector of the Illinois Industrial University, would deliver a lecture at the Baptist church on last evening, brought out a good audience, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, and all who attended were richly repaid on hearing one of the best lectures of the season. The lecturer was introduced to the audience at 8 o'clock by the Rev. W. H. Bateson.
The Doctor announced, in the outset, that he generally delivered two discourses, "one to please himself, and one for his hearers. He would deliver the one to please himself first. Public opinion attacked space and had practically destroyed it with the locomotive. It also attacked time, and the telegraph was the result. It should now attack death; when this was done intelligently the time would come when such diseases as diphtheria, small-pox, measles and typhoid fever would be unknown, and the time would come when a man would be ashamed to have it said that his little child had died with any of the above diseases, as the light of science would show that all were produced by influences that could be controlled. (The audience here highly applauded the speaker.) He then announced as his subject the "World Our Schoolmaster; or Education the Work of a Lifetime." Man is put on the earth to grow, and to be educated. It is an error to suppose that education either begins or ends with our school days. People talk of school graduates as having a "finished education," but practically there was no such thing. A finished education would be of hope, and also of growth. The school house was the start; then the university, and after it the grand lesson of life. This life was for the germination of seed that should bear fruit to eternity. All grand things grow slow. The world itself existed for countless ages before it was prepared for man. The human mind was a thing of growth. The last and greatest efforts of the mind leave it, with the mind grasping for something grander. Modern learning, great as it is, has in manner but just begun to gather pebbles on the shores of time. Each fact is but the reminder of a larger fact. What we know is but the alphabet. Nature's repositories of wealth lie yet half concealed. Greater triumphs yet await the patient student. Poetry has not yet exhausted its combinations, or music or eloquence its thrilling words. There is no hour in life but what we can make progress. The forces of nature, her scenery in so many forms, are all teachers. Mind is the crowning chapter of all, tuning 1000 languages with the literature of thought, forming a world within us as well as without. Who has not seen that the noble purpose of the mind has shaped the whole after life of the man, leading him on to grand and noble purposes; while on the other hand thoughts of lust have polluted and pulled him down. Grief is often a necessary schoolmaster. Homer, Dante and Cowper all drank lessons from this master. Two loving hearts joined at the wedding altar become mutual teachers. As a man thinks in his heart so is he. Educational influences make the lawyer a student and the merchant affable. [Christianity is a teacher, and out of it have come Luther reformation, Cromwell rebellions and New England settlements.] Literature is also a great teacher, and the embodiment of thoughts of humanity in all ages. Books should be the companions of all.
With all these great educators around us, how plain the truth that not gain, not wealth, but the pursuit of knowledge is often the great object of life. "Not man for the state but the state for man," is to be the motto of the future. It matters less than most men think what particular sphere we work in. All are actors on the grand stage of life. To live here is not to merely eat and drink, but also to think, and be who does not think in the true sense of the word, can hardly be said to live. And when this work of thinking ceases death comes. The rewards of the diligent thinker are better than gold. The speaker closed with an eloquent reference to these rewards. The discourse was listened to with complete attention, and we hope that the Doctor will again favor us with his presence.
Cheap Counter.
Since the inauguration of our closing out sale we have established in the center of the store room a Cheap Counter, to which we call special attention. In this connection we wish again to remind our patrons that even the goods on this counter are not odds and ends, as is often the case, but new and fresh goods, of which the duplicates, in large quantities, remain on the shelves. The long and short of the matter is, we bought too many winter goods, and failed to dispose of them, hence the prices at which we offer them. See our stock in detail. We repeat that our stock in nearly all departments is the freshest, cleanest and most complete of any similar establishment in the West.

A Metastrophic Alliance.
The wedding of Miss ANNA BOTTEM-FIELD, only child of Mr. John Bottemfield, one of the prosperous farmers of this county, and Mr. HARVEY TAYLOR, a lumber merchant of Dallas City, Illinois, was quietly, yet joyously, celebrated last evening (Jan. 13) at the comfortable home of the bride's parents, three-fourths of a mile north of Macon, in the presence of a large company of invited guests. The words which united the destinies of the contracting parties for life, were spoken impressively by Rev. D. C. May, pastor of the Macon Methodist church. After the ceremony the company partook of a sumptuous wedding repast which had been prepared with special care by the bride's mother. It included all the substantial and obtainable delicacies of the winter season. The bride, who was attired in an elegant and richly trimmed brown satin dress, was the recipient of a large number of gifts, as follows: A handsome chamber set of furniture and table napkins, from the parents of the bride; complete china dinner set, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Phillips; complete set of kitchen furniture, from "The Girls," butter djab, J. Z. and A. Phillips; handsome tidy, Ella Sturges; carving set and set of silver knives and forks, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Zollars, Lafayette, Indiana; silver casket, Mr. and Mrs. Ada Zollars; library lamp, S. D. Moore; elegant nickel clock, "Dollie and Ida"; silver spoons and forks in case, Mr. and Mrs. John Zollars and O. E. Curtis; cut glass pitcher, Mrs. Jessie Divan; set of glassware, Worthy Divan; linen table cloths, James Coop, and other articles which our reporter failed to get down. To day Mr. Taylor and bride went to Dalton City, their future home, where they will reside. They take with them the warmest wishes of hosts of friends in and about Macon and elsewhere.
PERSONAL MENTION.

The wife of the Rev. Thomas Bonnell, pastor of the Methodist church at Warrensburg, has been alarmingly ill, but is now reported to be in an improved and hopeful condition. The attending physician is Dr. Walston, of this city.
William Miller, a brakeman on the P. & E., had one of his fingers caught between the cars in this city, on Tuesday night. He had a portion of the injured member amputated at Pekin on the following day.

"TO BE, OR NOT TO BE."
"To be, or not to be," that is the question, whether to suffer from a diseased system and continuous impurities of our blood, or to take Spring Blossom and become a welcome and respectable member of society. Price: 50c, trial bottles 10 cents.
Hiding Out of Business.
For reasons unnecessary to detail we desire to close out our business in this city, and as this conclusion has only been arrived at within a few days, purchasers will find our stock almost unbroken. No house in the city can show a more complete line, and, as we are in earnest, prices, within reason, will not stand in the way of sales. See our advertisement elsewhere in this paper.

URSA M. HODGE, of Battle Creek, Mich., writes May 15, 1878: "I used a tea kettle boiling hot water on my back, inducing very severe cold. I applied Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, and took great pleasure in announcing to my friends that the effect was to stay pain and prevent blistering. I was cured in three days. We prize it very highly as a family medicine." For sale by Dr. A. J. Stomer. jan11

HOLIDAY SEASON 1880-'81.

Otto E. Curtis & Co.,

Decatur's Leading Jewelers!

IN CALLING YOUR ATTENTION TO OUR LINE OF

this year we feel that we can give you the most elegant and complete assortment of goods that has ever been our pleasure to display, which embraces many Novelties not to be found elsewhere in the city.
Our entire stock has been selected with the utmost care, and bought directly of manufacturers and importers, consequently we feel sure we can give you LOWER PRICES than any firm in the city, and at the same give you a FAR BETTER SELECTION of goods than you would be able to find could you see the other stocks of our city combined. We have just returned from New York and the Eastern Markets, and were there at the season—when the holiday patterns were "brought out," and, therefore, were enabled to select many things that will not be found elsewhere in the city.
We should like very much to have the opportunity to show you through our line and give you PRICES. We have always made it a point to have all our advertisements STRICTLY TRUE, and when we allude to our stock being so far in excess of all others here, and our prices lower, we do so knowing that an inspection on your part will convince you of the facts. Very respectfully,

TWO LOVERS.

Two lovers by a moss grown spring:
They leant soft cheeks together there, Mingled the dark and sunny hair,
And heard the wooing thrushes sing.
O love's best prize!

Two wedded from the portal step:

The bell made happy carolings,
The air was soft as faunting wings, While petals on the pathway swept.
O pure-eyed bride!
O tender bride!

Two faces o'er a cradle bent:

Two hands above the head were locked;
These pressed each other, while they rocked, These watched a life which love had sent.
O patient wife!
O tender wife!

Two parents by the evening fire:

The red light fell about their knees;
They drew their chairs up side by side, Their pale cheeks joined, and said "Once more!"
O memory!
O past that is!

Grain Carrying.

Some interesting statistics have been compiled at New York as to the exportation of grain from that port, and the classes of vessels engaged in transporting it across the ocean last year. The statistics show that steam is rapidly gaining on sail in this business. Of the total shipments in 1890, 49,366,579 bushels were carried by steamers and 63,375,554 by sailers, while in 1879, 40,500,058 were carried by steamers and 68,910,923 by sailers, an increase over 1879 of 9,466,521 bushels by sail.
There were 6,789 sailing vessels carrying grain in 1880 and 1,292 steamers, a total of 3,031, while in 1879 there were 1,798 sailers and 1,056 steamers, a decrease, in 1880, of 7 sailers. At this rate, it is evident it will not be long before the steam-shippers will exceed the sail.
